Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks

The Examiner acknowledges receipt of the Request for Interference filed on June 3, 2002. At this time Applicant's request will not be granted. In accordance with MPEP 2303, Interference between applications requires one of the applications to be in condition for allowance and the effective filing date of each application to be within a 3 month period of time. Currently, neither application is in condition for allowance and the effective filing dates are more than 3 months apart.

Applicant is reminded that the restriction requirement mailed on June 4, 2002 is outstanding. The time for reply to the restriction requirement continues to run from June 4, 2002.
